

Pine Bark Adelgid Pineus strobi

PPM 10/06/2024

Order: Hemiptera

- Hemipterans include aphids, adelgids, leafhoppers, bed bugs, cicadas.
- All have piercing/sucking mouth parts
- Also know as Sap Suckers

Pineus Strobi

- Host species is White Pine, can be found on Scotch and Austrian
- Lethal? Can be for small trees.
- Not lethal for mature trees but makes them look rough.
- Infestation typically advanced while paired with other factors.
- Feeds on phloem
- Secretes white wax that protects them from predatory insects
- Controlled with systemic insecticides and horticultural oil spray

